

BENOÎT RIBADEAU-DUMAS

Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Benoît Ribadeau-Dumas is Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Exor.

Mr. Ribadeau-Dumas began his career at the French Council of State in 1997 before joining Thales, a leading French technology group in aerospace and defense, where he held various roles until 2009, when he was named CEO of Thales Underwater Systems. He was later appointed at geoscience global leader CGG as Senior Executive Vice President, and then at Zodiac Aerospace, as a member of the Management Board and CEO of the Aerosystems branch. In 2017, he joined the cabinet of the French Prime Minister as Chief of Staff.

He joined Exor in 2022 as a Managing Director and became Chief Companies Officer in 2025. He is a non-executive director at Philips, Institut Mérieux, bioMérieux, Stellantis, TagEnergy and Welltec.

He graduated from École Polytechnique and attended École Nationale d'Administration (ENA).